

ICCLR'S INTERNATIONAL CRIMINAL COURT PROGRAMME

ICCLR has over a decade of experience on ICC matters including manuals, technical assistance and international representation. The Centre is currently proposing programmes and tools to assist with:

- cooperation between the ICC and domestic criminal justice personnel
- non-state party cooperation with the ICC
- increasing Asian engagement with the ICC
- domestic prosecution of extraterritorial international crimes

ICCLR's ICC Manuals

- International Criminal Court: Manual for the Ratification and Implementation of the Rome Statute (3rd ed. 2008, 2nd ed. 2003, 1st ed. 2000)
- International Criminal Court: Agreement on the Privileges and Immunities of the International Criminal Court (2003)
- International Criminal Court: Rules of Procedure and Evidence (2nd ed. 2003)
- Cooperating with the International Criminal Court: Potential Implications for National Criminal Justice Personnel (2003)

ICCLR's Technical Assistance on ICC Matters

ICCLR's ICC Manual and other tools have been used for technical assistance activities, including legal and policy development, in numerous countries.

- The 1st edition of the ICC Manual was launched at the ICC Preparatory Meeting in June 2000. (Available in French, Portuguese, Spanish, Russian, Arabic and Chinese.)
- ICCLR held regional workshops on the ICC from 2000-2002. In total, the workshops convened 400 delegates from 80 countries. Workshops were held for the government, civil society and media in the following regions:

- Pacific Islands (Cook Island/New Zealand 2000);
- Francophone Central Africa (Cameroon 2001);
- Caribbean (Jamaica 2001);
- Southern African Development Community (Namibia 2001);
- West Africa/ECOWAS Member States (Côte d'Ivoire 2002, with ICRC).
- ICCLR held country specific technical workshops on the ICC from 2002-2008, in the following countries: Thailand (2002), Cambodia (2002), Lesotho (2003), Tanzania (2003), Gabon (2003), Jamaica (2004), Samoa (2004), China (2007-2008), including Harbin (2007), Beijing (2007, 2008), Tianjin (2008).
- ICCLR participated in ICC workshops in Philippines (2002), Cambodia (2002), Laos (2002), China (2006).

ICCLR's International Representation on ICC Matters

- International Meeting of Experts on the Establishment of an International Criminal Court (1993). ICCLR convened a five day meeting for over 70 leading criminal and international law experts from 30 countries. The expert meeting's final report was used by the UN's Legal Office in the design of the International Criminal Tribunal for the Former Yugoslavia.
- UN Committee meetings for the Establishment of the ICC (1995).
- The UN Diplomatic Conference of Plenipotentiaries in Rome on the Establishment of the ICC (1998).
- All ICC Preparatory Committee Meetings (1996-2001).
- Assembly of States Parties meetings (2001, 2002, 2007).

For more information, please visit:
<http://www.icclr.law.ubc.ca/Site%20Map/Programs/ICC.htm>

THE INTERNATIONAL CENTRE FOR CRIMINAL LAW REFORM AND CRIMINAL JUSTICE POLICY

The International Centre for Criminal Law Reform and Criminal Justice Policy (ICCLR) is an independent, international institute based in Vancouver, Canada.

The Centre's mandate is to promote the rule of law, democracy, human rights, and good governance in criminal law and the administration of criminal justice, domestically, regionally and globally.

To fulfill its mandate, the Centre cooperates closely with a network of local, national and international experts including representatives from Federal and Provincial governments, legal and academic communities, as well as other members of the United Nations Programme Network of Institutes. The Centre undertakes development and delivery of technical assistance programs, develops tools including handbooks and manuals, and conducts research and policy analysis. The Centre also provides public information, consultation and education relating to crime, victim protection, the development of more effective and fair justice systems and international cooperation to fight serious crimes.

ICCLR is registered in both Canada and the United States as a not-for-profit organisation. It relies upon financial support from foundations, academic institutions, governments and individual donations. The Centre issues official receipts for all tax-deductible donations.

For more information, please visit:
<http://www.icclr.law.ubc.ca>

International Centre for Criminal Law Reform and Criminal Justice Policy

Le Centre international pour la réforme
du droit criminel et la politique en matière de justice pénale

International Criminal Court Programme

1822 East Mall, Vancouver, B.C./C.-B
V6T 1Z1 CANADA
Tel/Tél: + 1 604 822 9875
Fax/Télé: + 1 604 822 9317
Email/ Courriel: icclr@law.ubc.ca
<http://www.icclr.law.ubc.ca>